Re: MUR 4317 (Huckabee Election Committee)

Dear Mr. Noble:

The Huckabee Election Committee offers the following information in answer to MUR 4317.

First, a contribution listed on Schedule A as a political action committee contribution from Fort Smith Coca Cola Bottling Company is not a corporate contribution. Fort Smith Coca Cola Bottling Company is not a corporation, but is, in fact, a partnership. The contribution should have been listed as an individual contribution from Roger Meeks, Jr., a partner of the Fort Smith Coca Cola Bottling Company, on Schedule A. The contribution was misreported as a political action committee contribution by our campaign and an amended report has already been filed.

Second, a contribution listed on Schedule A as a contribution from an Culp and Company Hudson, Cisne, Keeling was in fact an individual contribution from Mr. Richard Cisne, a partner in the partnership. The name of Mr. Cisne was inadvertently omitted from the report and the name of his employer was listed in its place. An amended report which corrects the error has been filed.

Both of the above were from individuals who intended them as personal contributions to the Huckabee Election Committee (U.S. Senate) and are legal contributions. The were not corporate contributions and the entities listed are not even corporations, but are in fact, both partnerships.

Third, the contribution listed on Schedule A as a political action committee contribution from Delta Beverage Group, Inc., was misdeposited by our committee. This corporate contribution was intended by the donor for the debt retirement of Mike Huckabee's lieutenant governor committee. This contribution was refunded immediately to the donor upon our learning of our error. Our upcoming FEC report, which is to be filed in April, will show that this contribution has been refunded as of March 1, 1996, and will be reflected on Line 20A.

RECEIVED
FEDERAL ELECTION
COMMISSION
OFFICE OF GENERAL
COUNSEL
MAR 28 9 56 AM '96

While the DSCC asserts that the three contributions mentioned above are "unlawful on their face," it is clear that two are in fact legal contributions and the other the result of an honest and unintentional error in the first weeks of the campaign's exploratory phase.

This single $1,000 check represents less than .5 percent of total contributions during this first reporting period for this campaign. We have conducted a thorough review of all contributions and have found no other possible contributions from corporations.

We have undertaken a thorough review of our deposits and have identified an individual contribution of $100, which may have been misdeposited. In order to remove any possibility of error, we are taking the precautionary step of refunding this contributions as well. This refund will also be disclosed on our next FEC report.

Mike Huckabee and the campaign staff understand the significance and the importance of thorough verification of all contributions offered to the campaign. We have, with the advice and assistance of the Chief Counsel of the National Republican Senatorial Committee, put additional measures in place to further ensure that no inappropriate contributions could go undetected by the campaign in the future.

Sincerely,

Dear Sirs:

Please find attached our amended report for the year end 1995. We have learned that a contribution we listed as a PAC is in fact a partnership. Our itemized receipts page will show the proper designation.

Our detailed summary page has been adjusted to reflect the decrease in our PAC contribution total and the increase in our individual contribution total.

Thank you,

Dear Sirs:

Enclosed is our amended year-ending report for 1995. We have learned that a contribution which we listed as being from a partnership was actually from an individual partner of the company. We have corrected it accordingly.

Thank you.

RE: Review of 1994 Post-election Campaign Reports

Dear Lt. Governor Huckabee:

In October, 1995, you asked this Commission to review your campaign finance records of 1994 and publicly issue our findings and conclusions about the records. Specifically, questions had been raised by media and interest groups concerning 1995 fund raising efforts by your campaign to retire a debt associated with the 1994 Lieutenant Governor's race.

In a public meeting held Thursday, February 1, 1996, the Commission reviewed the staff report on the Huckabee campaign debt retirement activities and voted to issue Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law concerning the campaign's 1995 efforts to retire the 1994 campaign debt.

There were two rulings issued by the Ethics Commission at its last meeting. Each ruling is addressed separately with the findings of fact set out relative to each issue.

RULING NUMBER 1

THE CONTRIBUTION AND EXPENDITURE REPORTS FILED BY LT. GOVERNOR HUCKABEE'S CAMPAIGN IN 1995 WERE INACCURATE

FINDINGS OF FACT

(a) This review was primarily of the Huckabee post-election reports with regard to retirement of the 1994 election debt. The Huckabee campaign filed their post-campaign reports timely and produced these reports more frequently than required by the law (monthly vs. quarterly).

(b) Both the original and the amended Contribution and Expenditure Reports filed by the Huckabee campaign in 1995 reported some expenditure items inaccurately or mistakenly.

(c) Specifically, on the May report, a Visa payment of $4,146.13 appearing on the list of expenditures was not the amount actually paid to Visa. The listing included a payment of $2,017.82 for a bill to the Little Rock Hilton Inn which was voided and not sent.

(d) The same payment to the Hilton appeared as a line item or part of a line item on three separate expenditure reports. Twice checks were voided. The bill was not paid prior to June, 1995.

(e) The July report listed expenditures to Mastercard totaling $3,394.50. The staff could not justify that amount after a review of receipts provided by the campaign. Additionally, at least part of the payment was not made to Mastercard; but was made to Citibank.

(f) Payments to credit card companies, such as Visa and Mastercard, were not to reimburse actual charges against the card. Our review showed that often payments were made to a credit card company to reimburse the candidate for out of pocket travel expenses or to reimburse the candidate for mileage at a rate of $0.30 per mile.

(g) Review of underlying records revealed that the candidate's post-election travel was primarily in-state to political functions, not solely related to debt retirement, but also to general political activity which the Huckabee campaign assumed should also be paid out of campaign funds.

(h) The present campaign Contribution and Expenditure Reports do not provide for the candidate to specifically itemize the expenditures making up his or her campaign debt nor to show how and when these are paid. The staff found it necessary to review underlying documentation to understand what items made up the campaign debt and how the post-election expenditures related to the debt.

RULING NUMBER 2

THE HUCKABEE CAMPAIGN DID NOT ACT REASONABLY IN RAISING $91,000.00 TO SATISFY A DEBT THAT IT REPORTED AS $35,161.09

FINDINGS OF FACT

(a) When Lt. Governor Huckabee finished his 1994 campaign, he finished it in debt. After a review of the records, it was determined that the debt was no greater than $ 35,161.09. Of this amount, $ 7,366.09 reflected reimbursements to the candidate and his spouse for expenses incurred during the 1994 campaign, but which were not claimed until the summer of 1995.

(b) The staff review found evidence that on August 1, 1995, the $15,000 campaign debt owed to political consultant Dick Morris was forgiven. Smaller debts totaling $3,164.91 had already been refunded according to information furnished by the campaign. Therefore, the total amount of debt finally owed as a result of the 1994 campaign and paid through 1995 efforts to retire this debt was $16,996.18.

(c) The majority of funds expended in 1995 were for administrative costs and expenses incurred in 1995. When the Huckabee campaign began spending money raised by debt retirement fund raisers, most of the money was spent on administrative costs. These administrative costs related to general political activity, including attending lunches, benefits and other political functions. Huckabee maintained a separate political office in Texarkana and all political expenses incurred between January and September, 1995 were paid from money received in the form of contributions during this same period in 1995.

(d) Brenda Turner was promised a salary of $625.00 per week for work performed between January 1 and May 7, 1995. She has stated that no more than half of this work was related to debt retirement. She was paid $ 10,545.99 in May, 1995, after the first debt retirement fund raising effort, for work performed between January 1 and May 7, 1995.

99-04-391-3756

(e) All postage and telephone expenses, totalling almost $18,000.00 were paid through contributions received in 1995. Not all of these expenses related to debt retirement. Some of them were related to general political activity.

(f) In May 1995, the campaign reported receiving contributions of $34,195.17, just less than the total 1994 campaign debt of $35,161.09. The review showed that only $4,500.00 was paid in May to retire the campaign debt. The remaining expenditures went to post-election administrative costs.

(g) The review revealed that the Huckabee campaign made an effort to separate what Huckabee viewed as political activity from what he believed to be office holder duties. Mr. Huckabee consistently paid expenses out of monies received from campaign contributions rather than using public funds.

APPLICABLE LAW

Ark. Code Ann. §7-6-203(f) prohibits the solicitation or acceptance of any campaign contributions more than two (2) years prior to the candidate's next election except for the sole purpose of raising funds to retire a previous campaign debt.

Ark. Code Ann. §7-6-203(j)(1)(D)(i) provides that a candidate shall turn over within thirty (30) days following a general election to contributors of the candidate's campaign any balance of campaign funds over expenses except for an "amount equal to the yearly salary, excluding allowances, set by Arkansas law for the office...." Campaign funds retained by the candidate under subdivision (j)(1)(D)(i) "may be expended at any time for any purpose not prohibited by this chapter. However, the candidate shall not take the funds as personal income or as income for his or her spouse or dependent children."

Ark. Code Ann. §7-6-207 requires candidates to file quarterly or monthly reports listing contributions received and expenditures made during the reporting period. §207 further requires contributions and expenditures greater than $100.00 to be itemized, and all expenditures to be itemized by category.

Ark. Code Ann. §7-6-219(a)(1) provides that a candidate who "has a campaign debt from an election that has ended may solicit funds and hold fund-raisers to retire the campaign debt." §219 also provides that contributors "shall be given notice that the campaign contributions are for the purpose of retiring a campaign debt." This section further requires all invitations and notices to such "fund-raiser" state that the funds are to retire a campaign debt.

CONCLUSIONS

(1) Lt. Governor Huckabee's 1994 campaign ended in debt. Pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. §§7-6-203 and 219, the campaign was allowed to raise funds more than 2 years before the lieutenant governor's next election for the sole purpose of retiring the debt from the previous campaign.

(2) While the Commission appreciates that a campaign may not be fully apprised of its debts soon after an election, it is incumbent upon the candidate, pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. §7-6-203, to ascertain the amounts of any outstanding debts and calculate with a degree of certainty the status of the campaign debt/surplus within the end of the month following the general election.

(3) In 1991, the Commission issued Ethics Opinion 91-EC-012 which provided that, in addition to raising funds to retire the amount of the debt, a candidate could also use campaign funds to pay reasonable expenses related to retiring the debt. The Opinion reflects that the Commission expected that there would be certain costs related to retiring a campaign debt and that such costs could be recovered through the fund-raiser. The Opinion states that such costs, however, must be legitimately and reasonably related to debt retirement and administering the past debt fund.

(4) It is not reasonable for a campaign to use funds raised pursuant to debt retirement to pay off political expenses which do not directly relate to debt retirement. The total expenses of a political office which handles all political activities, part of which is assisting with debt retirement functions, should not be paid from funds raised solely for debt retirement.

(5) It is not reasonable for a campaign to incur large administrative costs in connection with debt retirement and pay for these costs before retiring the campaign debt. The Commission strongly encourages candidates who end their campaigns in debt to avoid incurring large post-election bills for personnel and office expenses.

(6) It is not reasonable for a campaign to raise $ 91,825.00 in contributions to retire a campaign debt of $ 35,161.09.

(7) Blanket lump sum expenditures do not provide sufficient itemization under the law (See Ark. Ethics Commission Opinion No. 94-EC-002). Listing credit card charges in this manner defeats the purpose of the law. Credit card charges should reflect what was charged on the credit card and paid by the expenditure. The purpose of disclosure laws is to provide the general public detailed and usable information concerning the actual sums of money that are being spent and the purpose of the expenditure.

(8) Ark. Code Ann. §7-6-207 requires that campaign Contributions and Expenditure reports be filed timely and reflect with complete accuracy contributions received and expenditures made during the reporting period.

(9) Contributions to a successful candidate following an election will be subject to strict scrutiny, as the elected candidate will be receiving the funds when in a position of public trust and power.

The above reflects this Commission's Findings and Conclusions with respect to the requested review of your campaign finance records related to debt retirement fundraising in 1995. Most of the issues presented herein were matters of first impression for this Commission. We appreciate the fact that the review began as a result of your request. We hope that this review and the conclusions made pursuant to it will be helpful to you and to other candidates as a guideline for future campaign debt retirement activities.

Sincerely,

Candi Russell
